

Where to find and join a Collaborate session

Go to Collaborate in your course. Select the session name and select the join option. To get the best experience please use a Chrome web browser.

You must give the browser permission to use audio and video to participate in a session. This is necessary so that you are seen and heard.

You'll be asked to do this when you first join a session or when you first go to share your audio or video.

More Online Help

Still having problems please log a Service Desk Call